18TH YEAR - NO. 5 THURSDAY FEBRUARY 1, 1973 FIFTEEN CENTS

Impressive Peace Services on Wilmington Common

Approximately 1000 people were on Wilmington Common, at 7 pm last Saturday, as the official beginning of Mr. Nixon's Peace was tolled on the church bells. It signified the end of twelve years of conflict, in Vietnam.

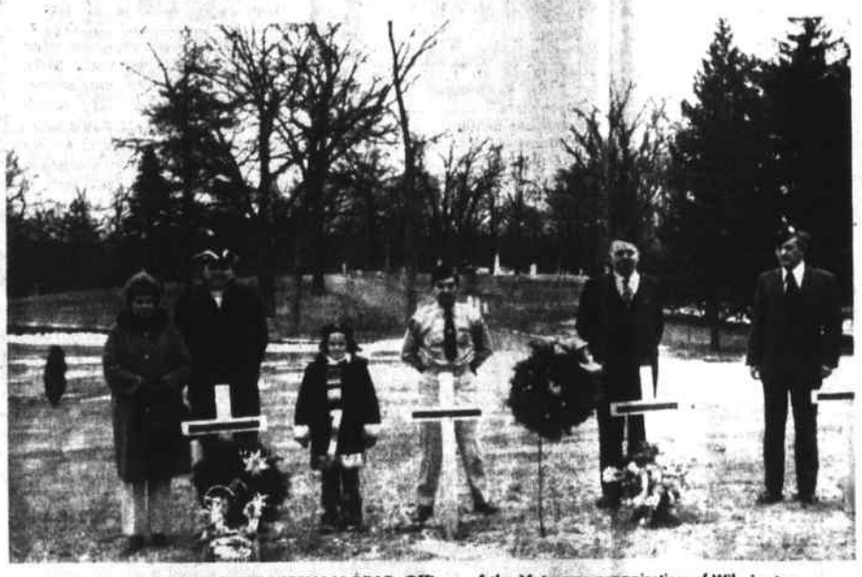

There had been a mile long parade, starting at the Police Station. Many who were unscheduled joined in, one of them being Senator Ron MacKenzie of Burlington, who marched with Lloyd Bender, the Master of Ceremonies at the Common.

The 18th Army Band, from Fort Devens, had been sent by Brig. Gen. DeWitt Armstrong III, and a surprise feature was the well drilled A Troop, of the 26th Cavalry Squadron of the National Guard, headquartered in Lowell, and commanded by First Lieutenant Jerry Bruno of Wilmington.

Participating were the High School Band, the Color Guard of the Nee-Ellsworth Post, VFW, the American Legion Boy Scout Troop, Girl Scouts, Campfire Girls, the Wilmington Minute Men and an augmented Wilmington Junior Crusaders.

The Commanders of the Veterans organizations led in a Pledge of Allegiance, on the Common, and everyone joined in the singing of America. The Army Band played the Star Spangled Banner, and the speech was by the Rev. Fr. Ernest Pearsall, who spoke in a patriotic theme, and included prayers for the dead, and for President Nixon. The Rev. Mr. Tadgell of the Wilmington Congregational Church spoke briefly, and offered prayers. There was a volley of three, by the VFW Firing Squad, and Taps, played by the Army Band, after which the church bells could be heard.

The committee consisted of the mesdames Barbara Larson, Lillian Perdicaro and Jo O'Neil, assisted by the Chief of Police, the Selectmen and the Town Manager and the Rev. Mr. Tadgell.

HONORING THE VIETNAM DEAD. Officers of the Veterans organizations of Wilmington, on Sunday afternoon, honored the four men from Wilmington who were killed, in Vietnam. Shown at the graves of William E Rich, Jr., John J. Fullerton, Jr., Robert W. Parent and Richard W. Welch are Capt. Arthur Sugrue of the Wilmington Minutemen, Bruno Lothar, American Legion, Ed Arinella, VFW and Rudy Carrasco, Disabled American Veterans. Mrs. Carrasco is at left, and the girl is Girl Scout Laurie Carrasco.

Kaizer's name will be on the ballot

Sidney Kaizer, of Cottage Street, is a career Post Office employee, who has been doing his work quietly for the past 20 years or so. He is the kind of fellow who will volunteer for the blood-mobile and will work for the Cub Scouts, and who always has a smile on his face - a pleasant one.

Last week the Town Crier carried a story that there was no candidate to fill the five year position on the Wilmington Re-Development Authority, a position which should be filled by someone to do a public service to the town. Typically, Mr. Kaizer volunteered, and has filed nomination papers. There will be no contest, but the job will be in safe hands. The town owes Mr. Kaizer a vote of confidence.

John Callan of Woburn Street is unopposed for the office of Moderator of Wilmington.

For the sole opening on the Board of Selectmen there are three candidates, George W. Hooper of Allen Park Drive, Charles R. Mather of Park Street, and James R. Miceli of Webber Street.

For the three year term on the Wilmington School Committee there are four candidates, one other having withdrawn. Remaining are David J. Dingle, Salem Street, Wayne M. Lockamon, Salem Street, John Nealon, Grace Drive, and Richard Thackeray, Kelley Road.

Candidates for the one year term on the School Committee are Harry J. Landers of Clark Street and Therese G. Chisholm of Hopkins Street.

Mrs. Kathleen S. Patterson of Patterson Street is unopposed, for re-election to the Wilmington Housing Authority, for a five year term.

Leo Woodside of Roberts Road is likewise unopposed for re-election to a four year term.

Running for the two year term are Donald J. Garland of Muse Avenue and John M. Reardon of Nathan Road.

There are two candidates for the School Committee of the Shawsheen Regional TEchnical High School. Frank McLean of Temple Street and Joseph Paglia of Nichols Street.

JUNIOR ROTARIANS: For the next few weeks Larry Morin of Butters Row and Bill Manning of 8 Lloyd Road Wilmington are going to be busy on Wednesdays, at noon. They have been named Junior Rotarians, and will participate in Rotary functions, including the luncheons, each week.

The naming of Junior Rotarians is an award for good scholarship in the High School.

SELECTMEN STILL BALK

Bob Corey of Lowell, owner of property in North Wilmington north of what is known as Ainsworth Road, was not present at the Selectmen's Meeting Monday night. The board had invited Mr. Corey to attend, several weeks ago to discuss the problems of Ainsworth Road.

Mr. Corey had written a letter to the Town Manager, in which he offered to meet with the Industrial Commission, and in which he talked of erecting buildings in the area for industrial purposes. The letter did not impress the Selectmen. Chairman Boylen drily stated that "Mr. Corey was invited to meet with us".

Attorney Simon Cutter was present, as were Mr. and Mrs. Ecker. Mrs. Ecker is the owner of two tracts of land, on one of which is a 10,000 foot building in which 24 people are employed.

Mr. Cutter had a cost figure of $12,000 for constructing Ainsworth Road, and offered in behalf of his clients to contribute $6,000. He said it would be good business for the town to accept, as it would get $50,000 in taxes from the Ecker property in 10 years.

The Selectmen were, collectively, dubious. Chairman Boylen said that Corey is asking $37,000 for the old railroad bed, which is something over three acres in area. Selectman Banda wanted to know if the Selectmen knew all the agreements made on and about the property. Selectman Gillis felt that there might be agreements which the Selectmen did not know of.

Acceptance of Ainsworth Road is to be discussed in the annual Town Meeting as a Warrant Article, by petition.

Cutter told the Selectmen that Bob Evans, former owner of land in the area, now a New Hampshire resident, had wanted $1,000 a year for the use of the old railroad bed. The eventual agreement was that Mr. Evans would get $1000 for the railroad bed, and that Mrs. Ecker, then Mrs. Stromquist, would pay the $1000, according to Cutter. A check was given to former Town Counsel Philip Buzzell for this amount, with an understanding that the road (Ainsworth Road) was to be extended so as to reach property of Evans.

Mr. Cutter urged his proposition upon the Selectmen, arguing that the improvement of the road would also open up land belonging to Jensen and Krey. (Mr. Jensen is the person who has been objecting to paying water betterments over the past 12 years. Ed.) Boylen pointed out that Mr. Cutter's price was $12,000, but that Corey was asking $37,000 for the old railroad bed, which he had bought from Bob Evans.

Also read were excerpts of a letter by former Town Manager Hennenberger, written about 1966, or half a dozen years after it had been established by the Town Crier that Ainsworth Road was "non-Kosher".

Boylen: I want to find out what Mr. Corey expects to get for that railroad bed.

Cutter: He wants $34,000 for that road. He gave Bob Evans a mortgage for $38,000.

Mr. Ecker arose to say that before the Public Hearing, May 6, 1961, Mrs. Stromquist had found out that Bob Evans had an option to buy the old railroad bed. The Town had had a special Town Meeting, in which it was voted to accept Ainsworth Road, and according to Mr. Ecker it was recorded but that Mr. Evans wanted something different.

In 1965, Ecker said, the town started cutting trees on the land of Mrs. Ecker, to fulfill its contract, but this resulted in stopping the drainage, and she had the tree cutting stopped.

Gillis: Some agreement, and we don't know what!

Ecker: The only reason the road is open now is because we got a restraining order, in the court.

Fines and/or jail

The Selectmen have had an answer from the Town Counsel, on their enquiry of some time ago, asking what would happen if they did not fully obey the state law, regarding precinct voting.

Briefly stated (the letter was not read aloud) the letter said there could be fines and/or jail. There were a number of statements by the Selectmen, all with the same theme: they did not like the situation.

Mr. Caira counted up the voters and the number of workers that the town is expected to have, on election day, and came with a result of 1 worker for every 44 voters. "That's worse", he said, "than the MBTA".

Mr. Gillis was willing to take the penalty of the fine, instead of appointing all the workers. "It will be cheaper that way" he announced.

Chairman Boylen wanted the (State) Secretary of State, or his deputy, to come out and talk with the Selectmen. "This, said Boylen, "is a gross infringement of Home Rule, made by the state. They are trying to make this town as inefficient as is the state."

Full time employees

In a discussion of withholding taxes of employees, the Selectmen came up with a figure of 585 full time employees, for the Town of Wilmington, at this time. 385 of these employees, they said, were teachers. The rest were other employees, totalling 200.

"False asset"

Also discussed was the fact that the town had not received a lot of Excise Tax money in the past year. The Town Manager blamed the present state system.

It is costing hundreds of thousands a year, he said, since the state took over. Tax bills used to get out in thirty days, now it is 90 days, and before they get to the owners of the autos taxed, the owners have moved out of state, and the money is gone forever.

Morris called the account of money owed, on Excise Taxes "False Assets".

Police car "totaled"

Morris announced that Police Cruiser 32 has been "totaled" (i.e. completely ruined) Friday night, in an accident. It was not the fault of the policeman, he said. A man driving without lights was following another car, the police cruiser turned left, behind the other car, and both cars were "totaled".

Hot and Cold Races, in Tewksbury, for March

The deadline for filing nomination papers for persons running for offices in Tewksbury in the March elections passed SAturday at 5 p.m. The list of filed nomination papers showed hot races for most town boards, but unopposed candidacies for seven seats.

Joseph J. Whelan, of 150 Kendall Rd., and Frederick H. Baldwin Jr., of 151 John St., filed papers to seek re-election for three years terms as selectmen. Contesting Whelan and Baldwin's seats are Andrew J. Murphy, of 19 Bradford Rd., Richard Adams Sr., of 176 Deering Drive, and Neil Niven Jr., of 48 Hill St.

Seeking to fill the two-year unexpired term of Charles H. Goldstein, who recently resigned as selectman, are Norman O. Boudreau, of 7 South Oliver St., Margaret Gale Cronin, of 6 Kneeland Rd., and Richard Adams Sr., who is also running to fill a three year term, but can't by town by-law hold more than one elected office.

Although nomination papers were filed favoring the re-election to the health board of Barbara Jackson, she reportedly will not run again this year. Her three-year term is sought by James W. Lennox, of 295 Marshall St., John J. Regan Jr., of 33 Tanglewood Ave., William J. Ritchotte, of 23 Anthony Rd., and Michael J. Daley, of 61 Carleton Rd.

Berube runs again

Auditor Thomas J. Berube, of 29 Maplewood Ave., seeks re-election to another three-year term. His seat will be contested by John F. Crickett, of 15 Rosemary Rd.

The five-year planning board seat of John J. Cooney is sought by Frank C. Criscitello, of 2 John St., and David E. Cook, of 10 Babicz Rd. Although papers have been filed for Cooney, he isn't seeking re-election.

Papers have been filed for incumbent Neil Niven Jr. to run for another three-year term on the road commission. Niven, however, has announced his candidacy for selectman, and can't be elected to more than one office. Seeking Niven's seat are Raymond J. Maillet, of 728 Whipple Rd., and Walter F. Sharkey Jr., of 125 Pringle St.

With School Committeeman Lowella F. Dewing reportedly not seeking re-election, her three-year seat and that of another incumbent, H. Bailey Trull, will be contested. Trull, of 157 River Rd., is running again. Also seeking a seat are Joseph W. Lipchitz, of 190 Cardigan Rd., Robert E. Mangieri, of 134 Charles Drive, Robert H. Mullen, of 35 William G. Drive, and John K. Leslie, of 15 Henry J. Drive.

Anderson drops race

One three-year seat on the Regional Technical Vocational School Committee, Ruth M. Anderson's, will be contested. She reportedly won't seek re-election, and seeking her seat are William J. DeGregorio, of 17 Cleghorn Lane, Robert L. Bernier, of 612 Woburn St., and Wilson E. Brazile of 731 Whipple Rd.

Running for a five-year seat on the Tewksbury Housing Authority are incumbent Mary F. Delaney, of 7 Benson Rd., and Lawrence P. Camerlengo.

In the race for a three-year seat on the sewer commission are incumbent Michael R. Firneno, of 85 Charles St., and John J. Babcock, of 1016 South St., William D. Hallisey, of 2 Baldwin St., and Daniel Joseph Penney, of 207 Fiske St.

A three-year seat on the water commission is sought by incumbent Victor Roux, of 81 Pleasant St., and Richard B. Connors, of 42 Lakeview Ave., Ronald W. Isabelle, of 69 Dewey St., Joseph A. McNeil, of 86 Lowe St., and Ronald J. Eddy, of 160 Starr Ave.

Incumbents unopposed

No one is contending incumbents William S. Abbott, of 19 Babicz Rd., and Edward J. Sheehan Jr., of 81 Lee St., in their races for three-year terms on the trustees of public library. Howard R. McGlauflin, of 23 Henry J. Drive, seeks to fill a two-year unexpired term he was recently appointed to fill until the March election.

Also running unopposed are incumbent John J. Nolan, of 81 Salem Rd., for three-year assessor; incumbent John E. Connolly, of 9 Pinewood Rd., for three-year park commissioner; Thomas P. Kelley, of 251 East St., for three year trust fund commissioner, and incumbent Alan M. Qua, of 50 East St., for one-year moderator.

Family claims police brutality in second Tewksbury Incident

A Tewksbury man sueing town police for alleged civil rights violations in 1971 applied for complaints in Lowell District Court Monday against police involved in a second incident Saturday. A sergeant named in the complaints was also involved in the 1971 incident.

The complaints, applied for by Leo J. Cullinan Sr., 48, of 17 Knollwood Rd., will be heard Friday in Lowell District Court. Cullinan alleges in one complaint that Sgt. Paul G. Johnson and Ptl. G. Kenneth Hague of Tewksbury and State Police Trooper Edward Cronin committed assault and battery Saturday against his son, Leo J. Cullinan Jr., 22, of the same address.

In another complaint, the elder Cullinan charges either Johnson of Hague, while driving a patrol car Saturday, committed assault and battery against Leo J. Cullinan Sr., and a second man.

The Tewksbury selectmen voted unanimously Tuesday to authorize Town Counsel Charles J. Zaroulis to defend Johnson and Hague in the action.

Johnson and Hague arrested Leo J. Cullinan Jr. Saturday at 5:30 p.m. on Shawsheen Street, and charged him with drunk driving and operating an unregistered car.

The other Cullinans were in another car at the time of the incident.

The charges against Leo J. Cullinan Jr. were changed in Lowell Destrict Court Monday to disorderly conduct, threatening Johnson and Hague and operating an unregistered, uninsured car. The case was continued until March 2 by Judge Elliot T. Cowtrey.

Johnson and others are being sued in federal district court for $100,000 by Leo J. Cullinan Sr., a third son Walter Cullinan, 16, and members of another family for alleged civil rights violations in connection with a case of alleged police brutality December 24, 1971.

A civil action taken by Walter and Leo J. Cullinan Sr. and others against another patrolman and an Andover teacher in connection with the Christmas Eve incident was denied in Lowell District Court July 22.

BERUBE SEEKS AUDITOR'S POST AGAIN

Tewksbury Town Auditor Thomas J. Berube this week launched his campaign for re-election to a three-year term.

In announcing his candidacy, he cited the need for training and experience in the post he has held for several years as the town's fiscal and accounting officer.

"Now, more than ever," Berube asserted, "there is great demand for maturity and responsibility in the handling of public funds. Taxpayers are being squeezed from all sides, particularly at the local level.

"With the cost of government skyrocketing, it is vital that Tewksbury's accounting officer be thoroughly familiar with the complexities of municipal finance, especially as they pertain to our town.

"Nowhere in local government are experience and sound fiscal management more important than in the sensitive office of Auditor" he said.

"We are entering a new era of revenue-sharing, changing budgetary procedures and tax-consciousness on the part of all homeowners which requires clear, concise and effective action by public officials in order for taxpayers to get masimum benefit.

"Government in Tewksbury is big business," the auditor noted, "and it continues to grow in leaps and bounds. In the past three years alone receipts and expenditures have jumped from $20 million to an all-time high or more than $32 million during 1972.

"Overseeing a fiscal operation of this magnitude requires expertise in fiscal management and the unique qualifications and proven ability which, I respectfully submit, I can offer to the voters of Tewksbury."

During his tenure, Berube said he built the town's accounting system fron an antiquated hit-or-miss operation to a streamlined program which incorporates all the modern techniques recommended by the Director of Accounts.

"The books and accounts of the town have been examined at regular intervals by the Mass. Dept. of Corporations and Taxation." Berube said, "and in each instance state experts reported all agencies functioning efficiently under the supervision of my department.

Redmen	27	16	20	24-87

Bob Stewart and Gary Smith along with D. Stewart made some key baskets while pulling down important rebounds in the closing moments. Dracut got only 3 rebounds in the second half while the Wildcats kept their turnovers to a seasonal low, 16 in a good team defensive performance.

Mark Nelson returned to action after a week layoff and tossed in six points in a good showing. Tom Woods and Phil Morrissey hauled down 11 and 9 rebounds respectively as the Wildcats maintained their board advantage.

Tue. Jan. 30th
Wildcats	13	16	12	22-63
Dracut	13	14	14	12-53

Coach Milley's jayvees won both of their outings and are not 7-6 on the season. Last Friday evening the JV's pulled a major upset in defeating the once beaten Tewksbury junior varsity, 63-60 behind a 30 point scoring outburst by Vin Scifo.

In Tuesday's preliminary the jayvees won their third in succession edging the Middies, 37-35. Bob Burns led the way tossing in 10 points while Ralph Peterson and Doug McLean chipped in with 9 and 8 respectively.

"A win is a win". The freshmen basketball quintet earned two ragged victories in the last week to bring their record to 3-4. Last Friday, behind Barry Foster's 12 points, the frosh built up a 29-15 lead on Tewksbury, and then with Chris Rounds' rebounding, hung on to a 33-31 win over the Redmen. Clutch foul shooting by Scott Gordon and Bob Aprile in the closing minutes accounted for all Wilmington's points in the fourth quarter.

Tuesday, the freshmen downed Dracut, 50-43, in a ragged affair punctuated by 51 fouls. Gordon and Foster each contributed 11 points, and both helped Rounds in dominating the boards. The frosh return to action next Tuesday afternoon at the West Intermediate when they host Methuen in a 3:15 pm clash.

STOPPED: Bob Stewart (14) goes up but not in as Bacheller (11) puts hand on ball.

Hockey sextet in crucial contests..

The next two Wildcat encounters in the MVHL will tell the whole story as the varsity skates against formidable Billerica Saturday and faces off against league leading Andover on February 7th.

In their two recent outings Coach Fessenden's skaters posted one goal wins over Tewksbury and Austin Prep to bring their seasonal record to 6-1-3. Senior John Trickett registered his third and fourth seasonal goals in leading the Wildcats to a 5-4 triumph over the Redmen.

However, it took last period markers by Dan Kindred and Dana Mullarky to being the Wildcats back to a victory after Tewksbury had scored three unanswered goals in the middle of the contest for a 4-3 lead entering the last three minutes of play.

Saturday the varsity defeated Austin for the third time this season by a 2-1 score as Mullarky fired home his sixth and Frank McLean's tenth seasonal goals to provide the margin of victory. Dean Devlin was superb in the nets handling 27 of the 28 Cougar shots flawlessly. Austin's Tom Murphy spoiled Devlin's shut out bid with a late middle frame score.

The make-up game of Jan. 13th against Billerica, the No Senior affair, will be played on Monday afternoon, February 19th at the Forum with face-off scheduled for 1:40.

Trackmen trounce Redmen..

Last Friday afternoon Coach Kelley's indoor track squad dominated Tewksbury with 35-15 first place points and went on to win their sixth meet of the season, 57-29.

Don Capone broke another school record when he jumped 5' 7" in the high jump. The previous mark of 5' 7" was set on January 19th by Capone and Tim Nee in the North Reading meet.

Other boys garnering firsts were: Tom Aprile (36.6 in 300), Doug Spring (2:37.8 in 1000), Carl Abell (10:39.0 in 2-mile), Bob Reid (43' 7" in shot put), and Rick Barry (6.4 in hurdles). The relay team of Barry, Tim Nee, Rick McCully and Aprile set a new school record while winning the final event of the meet. The mark of 2:29.6 snapped the record of the year which was set by Bill Badiali, Artie Bibeau, Rick Barry and Jack Barry at 2:30.7.

Tuesday the boys concluded their dual meet slate with a 57-29 triumph over Methuen to bring their seasonal record to 6-2.

79 HONORED AT AUSTIN PREP FOOTBALL BANQUET

Seventy-nine members of the Austin Prep '72 football squad were honored in recognition of winning the Central Catholic League and State Division III Championships, last week at the school. Following Benediction, over 400 guests, parents and players enjoyed a catered turkey dinner.

Following the dinner Fr. Turnbull distributed freshmen and farsity awards. 37 freshmen received dark green sweaters with the Austin insignia on the upper right hand corner.

REDMAN SCALPINGS

Tewksbury basketball back on winning beam..

The Redmen varsity hoop squad bounced back from its lone defeat of the season to whip the Wilmington Wildcats, 87-55 Friday night while on Thursday they edged Chelmsford, 60-51. Coach Romano's quintet is now sporting a 12-1 record, 9-1 in MVC action.

Co-captains Jim Meuse and Joe Lewis led the offense with 22 and 19 points each while Mike Manna chipped in with 13. Doug Stewart took game scoring honors tossing 24 for the Wildcats.

It was a ball game for 1½ periods, then the Redmen's better shooting ability (49% from the floor) took over as Lewis hit for 13 points in the first half. The jayvees lost their second game in 12 outings, bowing to the Wildcats JV's 63-60.

ALONE: Lewis (45) gets easy two points for Tewksbury.

WILMINGTON RECREATION BASKETBALL LEAGUE

Adults..Sweetheart Plastic pulled a major upset last Wednesday edging Newhouse, 85-82 behind Joe Dooley's 36 point outburst. In reaching the .500 level for the first time in four years Sweetheart never trailed posting leads of 22-18, 42-35 and 64-51 at the period breaks.

Bob Klesaris and Buzzy Couillard chipped in with 23 and 10 points each to aid the winners. Mark Conserva tossed in 32 for Newhouse while Don Bailey scored 21.

In the other contest played on January 24th the Super-Stars overcame a nine point half time deficit to defeat Wilmington Ford, 64-60. George Pratt and Ed Doherty paced the division leaders with 17 and 18 points respectively. Steve Donahue tossed in 22 for Ford to make game scoring honors. A cold third period proved to be the difference as the Stars outscored Ford, 18-8.

Sunday evening the Stars trounced Patenaude, 90-78 as Paul Lyman and Ed Doherty tossed in 23 and 21 points each to lead the Stars to their sixth straight win while Patenaude was losing their fourth in succession.

Coach Hanna's Knicks routed the Bullets, 50-31 as Dave Maloney and Vin Scifo tossed in 16 and 15 points each as the divisional runnerups were winning their fourth straight. Barry Foster led the Bullets attack with 13 points.

The voters of Wilmington, o. March 3rd will vote as usual, in the High School, but there will be a difference.

For the first time the town will be voting by precincts, a fact which makes the Selectmen unhappy because of added expenses that they do not want to have to pay. They have no choice - it is state law.

Voters of three precincts will use voting machines which will be located in the 'small cafeteria' of the high school, and voters of the remaining three precincts will use voting machines which will be placed in the high school gymnasium.

It follows that if the voters know just which precinct they live in they can save themselves some time, on March 3rd. A little study ol this page might be worthwhile.

Police dogs

Zip and Roscoe, Wilmington's police dogs, who have earned fame and glory for the past eight years, are to be replaced. The new budget will call for two new police dogs.

Each dog costs the town $1200 a year, the Selectmen heard from the Town Manager, who was of the opinion that one dog should be replaced this year, and one the next. They decided to call in the officer on duty, at the time. It proved to be Officer Bob Shelley.

Shelley said that Zip has a kidney ailment, and has to be fed pills at regular intervals, and that Roscoe is the more lively dog, but he is "high strung". Both dogs have been in service 8 years. The Boston police keep their dogs for 5½ years.

Zip, just recently, followed a person who had broken into a home on Sherborne Place (the former Eames farm, Ed.) just recently, and had traced the housebreaker over to Grove Avenue. He also spoke of how Zip had traced a person who had broken into a North Reading drug store, last summer, through the swamps and into Lynnfield.

The Selectmen decided to recommend two new Police Dogs in 1973.

$14 an hour

The Selectmen noted to the Town Manager that the sum of money for extension of the Fire Alarm system was $5,250. Wouldn't it be cheaper and better, Boylen asked, to use the Solid State radio system? Get a computer, and put the alarms in place, he urged.

Morris said the present system is the cheaper way. The discussion turned, but it got back again to fire alarms.

The turn was because they had noted that it was proposed to buy new beds and six reclining chairs, for the Fire Station. Collectively, or nearly so, the Selectmen asked "On a 42 hour week?"

Banda: Why not put them on a 40 hour week - three shifts, and do away with all beds?

Gillis: The price - $100 a chair. I Can't afford a chair like that.

Town Manager: You have three different groups, sitting in those chairs 24 hours a day.

Banda: And they have eight beds, too! I'm not for it!

Backman felt differently. He used to feel that way, he said, but he had checked it out, and he had come to the conclusion that if a man was to go out and fight fire at 4 am it would be better if that man was well rested. "I personally checked it out, in Billerica, Tewksbury and Reading". "I think the Firemen have a valid point".

Mr. Boylen thought that one man, of a watch, should stay awake. Caira gareed with Boylen, "in a department as crucial as the Fire Department". He and Boylen felt that one man should be up.

Backman: That was my feeling three years ago. I have completely changed my point of view. - The Deputy, who I respect as much as anyone, says that his men wouldn't save one minute by having one man up.

Banda: I'll go along with you, Carl. But why do we have to pay firemen $14 an hour, to work on the fire alarms?

Town Manager: It's overtime!

That didn't satisfy the Selectmen. Backman asked the TM why he just didn't hire people on straight time. The TM said that then everything would be "snafued". Caira was doing a little figuring - "$9 an hour for straight time for Firemen? he asked.

George Boylen asked why the town's Maintainence Department could not do the work. The Town Manager explained that then he would probably have contract troubles. "Collective bargaining - for over 40 hours".

Banda: Not part of the Fire Department work!

Morris said it was. Banda: a blatent case! Renegotiate! We are not going to pay a man $14 an hour for working on fire alarm systems!

Boylen compared the case to where firemen go out and work as a carpenter in their time off. They don't get time and a half for that kind of work, he said.

Gillis: And we are worrying about taxes!

Civil defense

The Selectmen were inclined to cut down on Civil Defense, but after talking it over with the Town Manager they appeared to have changed their mood. The first proposal was that it be eliminated entirely, but both Banda and Gillis pointed out that the town would lose money (Federal) in equipment. Mr. Cairo spoke of programs that were to be abandoned, anyway, and Mr. Boylen helped remind the others of the $18,000 Civil Defense Rescue Truck, which the TM said was used "in practically every operation" (of the Fire Department). The upshot of the conversation was to let the program remain.

Veterans memorial

Town Manager Sterling Morris let the Selectmen know that he is thinking in terms of using the lot of land across from Silver Lake, where the Silver Lake Betterment Hall used to stand, as a site for a memorial to the Vitenam veterans.

School buildings

There are numerous proposals for spending money on buildings used by the School Department variously as offices, etc. Each proposal wa sin turn discussed with the idea of not spending money, but in the long run each proposal was accepted.

Why should money be spent to repair the Roman House, for instance? A new High School is proposed - and the schools will be having offices in the new High School.

But, then, the Selectmen reminded themselves, the new High School is not yet voted, and they counted up the number of school officials who are presently working in the Roman House.

The same thing happened in the discussion of the old Center School, now the Curriculum House, and with the Swain School, once the High School. There was a certain amount of half joking on the Swain Schools, as being the "new town hall".

$6,900 for a new roof to the Mildred Rogers School came under attack from Banda. he couldn't see spending the money.

Morris told him that all four rooms were to be used, this fall, for the new kindergartens, required by state law, and that even then there would not be enough room.

When Banda heard this he proposed that the town talk with Avco, about using some of the area in that facility, on Lowell Street. "I think Avco would be happy to co-operate" Banda said.

Traffic lights

Rep. Fred Cain, a two minute visitor to the Selectmen, told them that he believed there would be new traffic lights, in Wilmington Square, and at the corner of West and Lowell Street. He believed, he said, that the new Commissioner of the Mass. DPW, Mr. Campbell, would agree to traffic lights that can be controlled from the curbstone by a traffic policeman.

SHORT CIRCUIT

Someone recently stated that "sin" 'short circuits' our relationship with God." It is sin that separates us from God! Each time we sin, it is like pulling the plug from the electrical outlet; our connection with God is broken.

The world is as lost as it ever was! We are still separating ourselves from God. But the connection can be made again by the mere act of confessing our failures to God, which then makes forgiveness and a more stable relationship with God possible for each one who seeks forgiveness.

To ment the "Short Circuit" you may be experiencing - ask, seek, and knock, and the door will be opened!

Thought for the day: "Ask, and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you." Luke 11:9.

Prayer: O God help us to mend the broken circuits that separate us from you. In Jesus' name, Amen.

A Key 73 Member.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Tarver

At a morning ceremony at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Reading, Judy Connors, daughter of Mrs. Ann Connors of Wilmington and Robert Connors of Tewksbury, became the bride of Clayton Tarver of Boston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tarver of Jordan, New York. The Rev. Frederick Emrich performed the ceremony, assisted by Scott McKenzie and Robyn Rees, both of Wilmington.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents. Her gown, which she made, was a traditional style of ivory satin with long cuffed sleeves and a chapel length train, trimmed with lace. Her headpiece was a wreath of baby's breath, sweetheart roses and stephonitis to which was attached her mother's veil. She carried a round bouquet of dried flowers, daisies and stephonitis.

Pam Smith of Wilmington was the maid of honor. She wore a traditional style gown with long sleeves with ruffled cuffs and collar. It was of forest green with a miniature floral pattern. She carried a round bouquet of orange roses and marguerites. Maryann Delaney of Wilmington; Myrna Spector of Belmont and Cheryl Stotts of Derby, Kansas, cousin of the bride acted as bridesmaids. Their gowns and flowers were identical to those of the maid of honor. The flower girl was Rebecca Warren of Melrose. Her orange dress was similar in style to those of the bridesmaids and she carried a fireside basket of orange roses and marguerites.

Frank Wesolowski of Potsdam, New York served as best man while ushering duties were in charge of Bob Connors of Wilmington, brother of the bride; Paul Zapert of Lawrence and Asim Brevli of Boston.

Tom Seavey of Wilmington sang "Turn, Turn, Turn" and an origional composition "Love Is.." during which the bride and groom distributed flowers to their guests.

Following the ceremony a luncheon was enjoyed by guests in the parish hall of the church, a reception was held at the home of the bride.

The bride is a graduate of Wilmington High School, Class of 1969. She attended Northeastern University and presently is a senior at the University of New Hampshire, majoring in Social Services.

The groom attended Clarkson College of Technology in Potsdam, New York and is employed by the Franklin Electroplating Company of Dover, New Hampshire.

The couple is now at home in Durham, New Hampshire.

Real Estate Today

By Richard D. Simmons, CRE, REALTOR
Past Pres. Eastern Middlesex Board of Realtors

DON'T KNOCK COMPROMISE

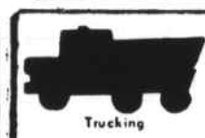

Looking for a new house? Then probably what you desire and the going price for such a dream house are mutually exclusive. There is no perfect house, and very few families can afford everything they want. This means compromise.

You might have to trade off certain desirable features to get a house with other more important ones. For examply, you may find yourself giving up a short commuting distance to get a house with more land or vice versa. You could give up a family room, say, for a second bath - then add the family room you really want later on, when you can better afford it.

Make a list of your top priorities, such as location, schools, number of bedrooms. This will do double duty. It will steer you to the house that comes closest to what you want now, and one that will also satisfy your probable future needs.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at RICHARD D. SIMMONS, REALTORS, 26 Princess St., Wakefield. Phone: 245-7878. We're here to help!

A Gunner's Soliloquy to Tina

My thoughts are on the rim
Of sea, away so far and dim.
Oh the sea and sky together,
Conspire thought of whether
Far off ship with stately ease
May sail serene, or on Deaths beckoning begon.

Fragile are thoughts within the sheen
Of lives just breaking, being
Like flowers of rare bloom
Nor like the perfume
As gunfire, when acrid overhead,
Sent death in mils, and sped
To Pluto all peace and calm.
Or calls to God for Gileads balm.

Always somewhere, here, away,
Where ere one goes, there is
The dead and sanguine surmise.
That strange surcease that stirs
A mystic rhythm, yet unheard.
As notes now lost we prayed,
Or of love we left unsaid.

Speak! Oh sleek and shining gun.
And from thy black depth, answer one,
What mockery is this?
A bliss that cheers and jeers.
For, as mere knowing goes,
The tide of time that flows
Has naught but tears beyond the rim
Of day, nor death beyond horizons dim.

Mrs. James J. Coste

The Wilmington United Methodist Church was the setting on Saturday afternoon, January 6th, as Susan Diane Willson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Willson of Thurston Ave. became the bride of James Jeffrey Coste, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy W. Coste of Forrest Street.

The couple exchanged vows before an altar decorated with red carnations, white mums, and white gladioli. The Rev. Willis P. Miller performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Peau de soie high waisted gown with a fitted bodice and gathered skirt. The bouffant sleeves were accented by a satin corded scrowl as were the scoop neck and hemline. Her fingertip veil was caught to her headpiece of seed pearls and satin flower pedals. She carried a cascade of red roses, fuji mums and ivy.

The bride's attendants, all of Wilmington were, Jean Reid, maid of honor, Diana Coste, sister of the groom, Stephanie Gates, Donna and Diana Paulsen.

The maid of honor wore a gown of royal blue belvet atop a plaid taffeta gathered skirt and carried a bouquet of red carnations and green holly with a blue velvet ribbon. The bridesmaids gowns were of emerald green velvet empire waist with the same plaid taffeta skirts. Their bouquets matched that of the maid of honor with green velvet ribbon.

The best man was Robert Canalas of Burlington. Serving as ushers were, Richard E. Willson, brother of the bride, Joseph Giddings and John Giddings all of Wilmington and Keith Higgins of Melrose, cousin of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Willson chose a cranberry velvet empire gown with a pink satin sash and pink roses.

Mrs. Coste was attired in a kelly green A-line crepe dress with gold braiding on the bodice and sleeves. She carried yellow roses.

The reception was held at the Andover Country Club where Tara L. Elia was in charge of the guest book.

After a skiing trip to New Hampshire and Vermont, Mr. and Mrs. Coste will be residing in Germany where the groom is stationed with the U.S. Army.

HOME OWNERS CORNER

A common cause for dirty hot water os overheating. The higher the temperature to which water is heated, the more likely it is to be dirty because of the precipitate that forms.
Water at a temperature of 130 degrees is sufficient for most household purposes. Whey buying a dishwasher, your best buy may be one with a booster heater for sterilizing purposes.$ This is the best way to avoid the formation of precipitate along the piping of your water system.
Your best buy is quality merchandise from the complete stocks of Sweezey Home Courtesy Center, 615 Main St., Wilmington, 658-2051. See brand name merchandise including Weldwood, Georgia Pacific and Abitibi paneling, Ozite and Ludlow carpeting and Rockwell power tools. Hours: Daily 8 am to 5 pm and Fridays 8 am to 9 pm.

Andover Townsmen to rehearse at North Intermmediate School Friday

The Andover-Townsmen, local chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America, will hold a free open rehearsal under the sponsorship of the Wilmington Recreation Dept. on Friday, February 2nd at the North Intermediate School in Wilmington at 8 pm.

The thirty man chorus will present an evening of music featuring the old songs in four part barbershop harmony by the chorus and quartets from within the chorus.

Under the direction of John Lathrop of Bedford, the Andover-Townsmen boast a runner-up position last year at the Northeast District Choral Competition in Framingham. This year the heapter plans to increase the membership to 50 men with the hope of making the finals in the 1973 competition.

Jack Gardner of Tewksbury, membership chairman points out that the group has no members from Wilmington. In planning an evening of entertainment for residents of the town, it is hoped that 10 or 15 men will join the chorus. Membership is open to any man who just plain likes to sing.

Spotlighters Seek Musicians

John Arvanitis of 68 Middlesex Ave., Wilmington has been selected as piano accompanist for the Spotlighters' upcoming presentation "The Secret Life of Walter Mitty. Performances will be given on April 27th and 28th in the Barrows Auditorium at 8 pm.

The play is a new musical based on the classic story by James Thurber with music by Leon Carr, lyrics by Earl Schuman and the book by Joe Manchester.

In addition to Mr. Arvanitis, the production is in need of a musical director, a sax or trombone player, a drummer, and soneone on the bass fiddle or electric guitar to complete the orchestra. Anyone having any of these talents who would like to become a part of the group is invited to contact Ron Whitney after 3 pm at 658-3440.

Richard Thackeray Plans

The Town Crier unintentionally omitted four of the areas which Richard W. Thackeray plans to examine if elected to the School Committee. In his resume presented last week, Mr. Thackeray had listed six areas, but the Town Crier printed only two:

3. Greater utilization of such schools as Shawsheen Tech in areas where Wilmington is now now able to instruct should be examined. This would help in two ways..first, it would eliminate the need for spending large amounts of money to establish courses for a few students in each interest area, and second, it would enhance the education of all in providing exposure to a variety of career-related subjects.

4. Consistant with the educational specifications for Wilmington, and the recommendations of the School Building Assistance Bureau, maintain a close watch on planning for our proposed building program.

5. Keep the taxpayer informed as to proposals and alternatives offered as we strive to improve the educational atmosphere and curriculum for our children.

6. In line with Wilmington's ability to pay, provide the finest quality education we can.

NEW BOOKS AT WILMINGTON LIBRARY

"The Cat's Eye" by Claude Aveline. Appearance and reality deceive each other. The author introduces to an innocent young French art student, to his beautiful, rich and very wordly fiancee, to the perfumed heights of the French art world, and to the domestic life of the provincial bourgoisie.

"The Crystal Mouse" by Babs H. Deal. Takes the reader to Florida to unfold a tale of growing terror amid the surroundings of an elegant retirement colony. Covering a period of just three days as Sara hears voices and footsteps in the supposedly empty apartment next door.

"The Young Russians; a Collection of Stories About Them" edited by Thomas P. Whitney. A unique collection of contemporary Soviet short fiction.

"Jimmy Doolittle Daredevil Aviator and Scientist" by Carroll V. Glines. Reads like a thrilling adventure novel. For the first time this American trailblazer appears full scale in Colonel Glines' biography.

"Astrology for Skeptics" by Charlotte MacLeod. Interested, but put off by all the faddish nonsense on astrology, Charlotte MacLeod set out to write a debunking bood and ended up with a rational view of astrology as a practical and challenging way of approaching life.

Selectmen approve their warrant Articles

The Tewksbury selectmen Tuesday during a four-hour meeting approved articles they will submit in the town warrant. Among goals of the articles are changes in the sign by-law, an end to restrictions on water to Raytheon and construction of a North Tewksbury fire substation.

Two of the more controversial articles would have the sign by-law changed to forbid political signs and the town counsel and a five-man committee appointed to study and formulate an entirely new sign by-law. The committee, to be appointed by the town moderator would report back to the town meeting no later than the regular 1974 meeting.

Another article would rescind a by-law passed by the 1972 town meeting. The by-law blocks water service to firms not entirely located within town borders, and would cut-off service to the Raytheon plant on the Tewksbury-Lowell-Billerica town line.

Fire station sought

Town acquisition of land on North Street for a fire substation, either by purchase or eminent domain, and authorization of funds for construction of the structure are requested in two articles. The selectmen will request the exact amount of bonding and other funds needed for the substation at the town meeting.

An article will request $18,000 to pay Blanchard Carter Service an $18,000 subsidy for continued bus service in the town.

Funds for an architect to prepare plans, drawings and specifications for remodeling and renovating town hall are requested in another article. The selectmen will name a specific figure at the town meeting.

In another the article the selectmen seek $5,000 to be used to hire consultants or experts to advise the board.

Another article seeks $4,000 to renovate sanitary facilities in town hall.

Two more articlew would allow the town to enter into mutual aid agreements with police departments of other towns, and would provide for the selectmen's town residents as police cadets for full-time "on-the-job" training.

Criticizes by-law

In discussing possible changes in the zoning by-law, Chairman Joseph J. Whelan said, "I feel our sign by-law is so unwieldy there is no way of enforcing it adequately." He added, "Something should be done about the sign by-law, which is unworkable." We have loads of violators who still haven't come in (for permits)."

Selectman Frank A. Antonelli commented, "I fully believe something should be done about the sign by-law, because we've had trouble since it was passed."

Antonelli provided strong support for barring political signs in the town. He said they disturbed neighbors of homes near the signs, and in some cases were an eyesore.

Whelan said he supported the article to reverse the 1972 town meeting's decision to bar water to firms such as Raytheon. He said no other community could provide enough water of sufficient quality to keep the Raytheon plant in operation.

The plant, he said, provided jobs for 75 to 80 town residents, and area Raytheon plants had 300 town residents on their staffs.

Bus costs more

Albert French, operator of Blanchard Charter Service, reported to the selecemtn on the $2400 increase in the subsidy he requested in 1973 over the 1972 figure.

French said since September he had to pay 50 cents more an hour for bus drivers to match similar raises given to school bus drivers. He reported a patronage drop cost the firm $1200 in lost revenue in 1972.

He added, however, that a new stop at Tewksbury Hospital might increase revenue in 1973.

Edward F. Penney Jr., chairman of the health board, called for the selectmen to support a warrant article to create the town's first full-time health agent.

The agent, whose salary would move in steps from $13,000 to $14,500, would take on all duties of the sanitary engineer, sanitarian and animal inspector, who earn a total of $7800 now, plus other duties. Penney said the board wanted a man with experience inspecting sanitary facilities, a bachelor's degree in public health and administrative ability.

Ryan questions results

Animal inspector Robert Ryan, also present at the meeting, questioned whether the agent would actually perform the animal inspector's job, which included picking up dead animals and destroying them.

The selectmen said they would consider Penney's request, though most questioned whether the animal inspector's duties shouldn't be left in Ryan's hands. Ryan earns $300 a year for the post.

Residents of the Patriot Road area complained of a recent selectmen's directive to the building inspector that would remove a hockey rink built across Bedford Road, a paper street. Whelan explained that once a complaint was lodged by a neighbor, as was recently the case, the rink had to be removed. He pointed to Town Counsel Charles J. Zaroulis' ruling the rink violated the zoning by-law as the reason for the order.

The selectmen spent 20 minutes in executive session with Zaroulis on an individual matter, and 10 minutes behind closed doors with Ryan, who requested the session for reasons other than the matter of the animal inspector.

Tewksbury Teenbits

A "Clean Air" car was brought to Tewksbury Memorial High School January 24, by Victor Bauk of the Lowell Gas Co. The request for the car came from Steve Doulames, a junior at the High School.

The car, with many safety features like side impact beams in the doors, roll cage, crash bumpers, a periscope which is supposed to be better than a rear view mirror, and three way rear lights-green for acceleration, amber for coasting, and red for braking, was parked in the school lobby, outside the doors of the auditorium.

The car, sponsored by Lowell Gas Company was in the Urban Vehicle Design Competition last summer competing against cars from 65 colleges in this country. All cars were tested for a week at the General Motors Proving Grounds in Michigan. This car, from Fitchburg State, won one of the three awards given.

The car, a Ford Maverick, was converted to a clean air car by the students at Fitchburg College. It was a student-run program. The students converted it to run on either gasoline or natural gas by adding an extra carborator, and they called it "Duel Fuel."

MAILLET PROPOSES GOVERNMENT OVERHAUL

Raymond J. Maillet, as part of his formal announcement of candidacy for the Tewksbury Road Commission, has questioned the effectiveness of present Highway Department equipment and advocated both creation of a town Department of Public Works and central purchasing agency and fuel depot for town departments.

His announcement reads as follows: "The Road Commissioner's duties with which I have become familiar as a member of the M.B.C. do not end with street maintainance and snow plowing as other aspirants for this office believe. When elected, it is my intention to enforce, rather than ignore our subdivision construction regulations and to pursue violators of this code and stop road construction that does not approach the highest standards of the trades. We must properly maintain our machines while ceasing to purchase equipment too large for most jobs, (we've had them sink) and too little to be of any use, (we've had them float). We must continue to expand our paving and repaving system while eliminating many visual hazards that exist on our roadways. We must effectively rid our streets of excessive flooding by working for you and not the builders and by protecting our laws, not their friends. I believe we need a public works department to combine highway, water, tree and future sewer departments under one roof to share men, equipment, and lower our budgets. I believe we should also have a central purchasing agency and fuel depot for all town departments. This alone will save thousands of dollars annually.

I also believe, that my education and experience in a related field qualifies me for a position on the Board of Road Commissioners where I will serve you honestly and diligently in order that Tewksbury streets may be safer for cars and pedestrials alike.

Kenneth Mulholland of Shawsheen Ave., has returned home from Okinawa.

TTA wants $235,000 used to cut Taxes

Among previously undisclosed articles submitted for the 1973 town warrant is one asking the town have $233,222 in unspent funds authorized in 1972 be used to cut the 1973 tax rate. Sponsor of the article to use the funds for cutting taxes is the Tewksbury Taxpayers Assn. (TTA).

The $233,333 was authorized under article 84 of the 1972 town warrant, for portable classrooms never built. In 1972 $32,000 represented one dollar on the tax rate, although with reassessment the figure representing one dollar on the tax rate will probably change quite a bit in 1973.

TTA has sponsored an article seeking to abolish the long range school planning committee and replace it with a committee to be called the school planning committee. The replacement committee would include the school committee, a planning board member and a conservation commission member.

The TTA also sponsored an article to forbid any person seeking election to more than one town office in any single election.

The Ames Pond Recreation Committee sponsored an article to hire three appraisers to value the Ames Pond property or other conservation or recreation area land to be purchased by the conservation committee. The appraisels would be used to aid the town in seeking state and federal aid to buy land.

The personnel board sponsored an article to have the pay of firefighters computed on a 40-hour-a-week straight pay basis.

The chairman of the Patriotic Activities Committee has sponsored two articles to spend a total $10,000 for a Bi-Centennial Commission to assist the selectmen in planning the town's celebration of the 200th anniversary of the country in 1976.

The commission would seek state and federal funds to aid in the celebration.

Several citizens sponsored an article to require all subdivisions built from the date of planning board passage be required to install granite curbing on both sides of streets for their entire length, and at the rear of all catch basins and gutter inlets.

Another citizens' article seeks to have all streets designed to provide safe travel for vehicles and pedestrians. Subdivisions streets would be classed as major or minor, with minimum size requirements for both categories.

A citizens' article seeks to have $25,000 appropriated for organization and staffing of the youth center under the direction of the park commission and Tewksbury Youth Center Inc., a group recently formed of private citizens not connected to the Tewksbury Council for Youth.

Another citizens' article seeks $19,200 for ice rental for the Tewksbury Youth Hockey Assn. hockey program, with the balance of rental fees to be paid by the association.

The TTA seeks to have no articles proposing changes in the personnel bylaw be entered in the town warrant without the consent of the personnel board.

Another TTA article would require the town warrant include list of individuals and companies receiving money from the town, with the total of received by them. Individual welfare recipients or veterans receiving aid would not be included in the requirement.

The TTA sponsored an article to have quorums at town meetings be set at 200.

Millett funeral draws 500 firefighters, Civilians

The crowd of firefighters and citizens that turned out for Capt. Frederick R. Millett's funeral in Tewksbury Thursday was so large almost 200 persons had to stand in the aisles or wait outside St. William's Church during services.

Millett, 47, died January 21 of a heart attack he suffered while battling a house fire on Dock Street. He was the senior man in the Tewksbury Fire Department in terms of years served, and was one of the most popular firefighters in town.

The funeral drew all 42 regular and 15 call firefighters in the town as well as more than 200 firefighters from 27 other departments. Tewksbury's entire police force was also on duty either directing traffic for the funeral procession or attending the funeral mass.

Just before 10 a.m. Millett's body was brought to St. William's Church from Tewksbury Funeral Home, where visiting hours Tuesday and Wednesday drew overflowing crowds to honor the fallen firefighter.

A casket bearing Millett's body rested on Engine 5 during the trip. A police car and Engines 1 and 2, bearing flowers, lead the procession to the church with close relatives riding in cars behind Engine 5, the unit Millett was serving with when he was stricken.

The procession drove slowly by the central fire station, where firefighters from Andover, Wilmington, Billerica and an ambulance from the American Red Cross stood by, covering for the Tewksbury men honoring Millett.

When the procession arrived at St. William's, almost 300 massed firefighters from Tewksbury and other towns and cities snapped to salute their fallen comrad. An honor guard of eleven armed firefighters from the Chelsea Fire Department and a drummer stood at attention, their formal white caps, belts and rifle slings gleaming in the cold, bright sunlight while the drummer rolled a slow, trembling moan on his drum.

The men of Engine 5, firefighters Paul A. Mahoney, Allen J. Hancock, William McAllister, Kenneth W. Holden, Richard A. Starling, Larry H. Nawn, Robert A. Fowler, Richard A. Gath, Thomas Ryan and Robert E. Collins, lifted Millett's casket from Engine 5 and brought it to the main entrance of the church. An honor guard from Boston stood at attention there while a prayer was said over the casket.

Inside the church, 150 civilians and an equal number of firefighters sat and 50 Tewksbury police and firefighters from other towns stood with a few private citizens to hear the funeral service. Many firefighters had to stand outside the church during services after marching through St. Williams to honor Millett.

A concelebrated mass was officiated by pastor John J. Hynes, OMI, his assistants, Fr. Patrick Hollywood and Fr. Leo Monroe. Concelebrants were Msgr. Richard Hawks of the Sacred Heart Church in Quincy, Fr. Thomas McPhilene, and Fr. Daniel J. Mahoney, division chaplain for Boston Fire Department.

The church, its white painted walls shining in the light, seemed more ready for a celebration than a funeral, and so it was. Fr. Hynes wearing the white vestments of hope and promise, said in a quiet, uplifting tone, that the service was "basically a birthday celebration for the newest and greatest joy of Fred's life. We came here, for what is in our religion the happiest birthday of his life."

Members of Millett's immediate family present included Mrs. Edith Millette, his widow; Mrs. Margaret Millett, his mother; and his sons, W. Russell, a Tewksbury firefighter himself, Frederick R. Jr., who flew from his duty station on the U.S.S. Ticonderoga in the Pacific to attend the funeral, Millett's sister, Mrs. Queena Kelleher, and his brother, Emmet.

Among officials attending services were state Sen. Francis X. Wall, the entire board of selectmen, Town Clerk John E. Hedstrom, William O'Neil, Water Commissioner Leo Chibas, veterans agent Ward Davis, civil defense director Warren Ray, Commissioner Leo D. Chibas, Finance Committeeman Albert Daley, Treasurer William J. O'Neil and former state Rep. Kevin C. Sullivan, and state Fire Marshall Joseph Sneider.

Police Chief John F. Sullivan and his family was there, and eight officers and men representing his department stood in the aisles, including Sgt. Paul K. Gearty and patrolmen Leith N. Westway, Warren R. Layne, Joseph Cormier, G. Kennegh Hague, Walter D. Jamieson, James E. Jones and Herbert Patterson.

After the services, the casket was lifted back onto Engine 5 for the slow procession to East Street Cemetery. While Main Street was blocked for almost 30 minutes, the procession moved down Main Street, along Robinson Street and then up East Street to the burial plot, only 20 yards from the southern wall of the cemetery.

Included in the procession to the cemetery were a Tewksbury police car, Engines 1 and 2 bearing flowers, Engine 5 bearing Millett's body, cars representing the fire departments of Wilmington, Billerica, North Reading, North Andover and Andover, the Tewksbury firefighters marching together, the Boston and Chelsea color guards, the massed column of marching firefighters from other communities, and more than 200 private cars.

Directing traffic to allow the procession to go through undisturbed were police Lt. Walter J. Jop, sergeants Phillip D. Bradanick and Richard J. Mackey, and patrolmen Richard F. Landers, Clifford Bolton, Robert A. Haines, Cyril A. Gordon, Richard J. Hanson, Samuel G. Stephens, and Auxiliary Police Capt. Albert LeBonti Sr. and one of his men.

At the same time, firefighters from Chelmsford, Billerica, Wilmington and Lowell stood by to cover for the Tewksbury firefighters, with Andover Capt. Henry Hilton in charge.

Patrolmen Allan Stephens and Charles Sullivan stood by in the central fire station to assist the out-of-town firefighters in an emergency, and Ptl. Frank J. Sullivan Jr. stood by at the South Tewksbury substation.

During the entire procession, Fire Chief William A. Chandler tolled the bell on Engine 5. Chandler and Millett were close friends for decades, and the chief helped Millett build the Millett home.

ESCORTING COMRAD: The men of Tewksbury's Engine 5 escorted the body of Capt. Frederick R. Millett to its final resting place in Tewksbury Cemetery Thursday. Millette died of a heart attack he suffered while serving with Engine 5 in battling a house fire early Sunday.

SALUTING MILLETT: More than 200 firefighters from Tewksbury and other towns saluted the body of Capt. Frederick R. Millett as it was brought from Engine 5 to St. William's Church for a funeral mass.

ONE MORE TIME FOR FIRNENO

Michael R. Firneno

Michael R. Firneno announced his candidacy for re-election to the sewer commission this week.

Firneno, a graduate of the New York City school system and Chicago Technical College, is married to the former Lucille Cassidy. They are the parents of seven children.

A resident of Massachusetts for the past 25 years, the family has lived at 85 Charles Drive, Tewksbury for five years.

Active in civic and community affairs since coming to town, Firneno has served on the municipal building committee, and the board of appeals.

He is employed as a superintendent for a Boston construction firm. In this capacity he has supervised the construction of additions to the Beth Israel Hospital, the Harvard Music School, Grover Cleveland School in Dorchester, and is presently supervising a major addition to Lincoln-Sudbury Regional High School.

His position places him in daily contact with engineers, architects, and contractors, he said. This experience and background have proved an invaluable aid to him this past year while serving as chairman of the present sewer commission, Firneno added.

As chairman of the sewer commission, Firneno and the board has met with Federal and State Agencies, and the commissions of the surrounding communities seeking all possible avenues to finding the answers to Tewksbury's sewerage proglems, he asserted.

Firneno said he would like to continue serving the community as Sewer Commissioner and complete the program that he and the board have started and implement it as soon as possible.

Because of his experience on the sewer commission this past year, he feels he is best qualified to continue in this capacity for the next three years.
